BODRUM AND THE GREEK ISLANDS GULET CRUISE

Tracing the Footprints of Nature and History, this special tour starts from Bodrum and ends in Bodrum after visiting the North Dodecanese Islands. It's an ideal choice for those who want to uncover the mystery of the Northern Greek Islands and follow the traces of nature and history in the Aegean Sea. During this voyage we will visit Bodrum, Kos, Leros, Patmos, Lipsi, Kalimnos and Aquarium Bay. Your home for this journey is the Modern Luxury Boreas Gulet, a 43-meter-long vessel. This elegant wooden yacht, with its 10-meter width, ensures comfortable travel in the Aegean Sea. Each cabin is equipped with a private shower, toilet, and air conditioning with a wardrobe and some storage for luggage. Full Board: A flavourful experience throughout your cruise, you can enjoy the meals prepared by our private chef with full board included. Our experienced chef will prepare fresh ingredients and caters for a range of diets. While enjoying the sun and the sea, you can relish the experience of these delicious meals. Please note that the final evening meal will not be served onboard.

ITINERARY

Day 1 Bodrum

We kick off our fantastic adventure in Bodrum. Boarding the boat from 16:30, after the necessary briefings, we'll have some time to explore the beauties of Bodrum. You'll have the chance to take a leisurely walk towards the old town, admiring the rows of restaurants and cafes along Bodrum's narrow streets.

If all passengers arrive before 18:30, the boat will set sail immediately to the nearest cove and drop anchor for dinner. Otherwise, our vessel will remain anchored in Bodrum port for the night. Dinner will be served on board, but for guests arriving after 21:30, a convenient meal box (sandwich, fruit, etc.) will be prepared. In case the boat stays in Bodrum port, you can enjoy the VIP massage service onboard or immerse yourself in Bodrum's famous Saturday night festivities.

Day 2 Bodrum – Kos

After breakfast, we set sail from Bodrum towards Kos Island. Following a brief introduction to the boat and the completion of customs procedures, we reach the port of Kos. This historical island offers the option to visit Asklepion, which has been home to mythological legends, or take a city tour (not included). You can also explore the streets of the city, visit local markets, and savor delicious local cuisine. Enjoy the evening in Kos Port.

Day 3 Kos – Leros

At dawn, our blue voyage continues in the sparkling waters of the Aegean bringing us to Xirokampos Cove on Leros, famous for its white sandy beaches and crystal-clear sea, a beautiful place to moor for lunch. Leros, with its deep fjords, tranquil coves, and traditional villages, is a mesmerizing island; depending on the weather conditions for mooring, we either visit Lakki Port or anchor in the eastern Agia Yacht Port. Platanos, the island's center, offers stunning beauty with its historic architecture and narrow streets filled with flower gardens. Climbing the 300 steps of Platanos, you will be rewarded with a magnificent view as you visit Leros Castle. Exploring the island on foot or by renting a bicycle is also possible.

Day 4 Leros – Patmos

In the early hours, we set sail towards the famous Patmos Island, known for its tranquility and spiritual atmosphere. We will take a break in one of its beautiful coves and while cooling off in the turquoise waters, you can savor the natural beauty of this island. After breakfast, you can take a stroll to the island's most significant features - its monasteries.

Patmos is also known as the Island of Saint John and is home to spiritually significant places like the Monastery of Saint John and the Cave of the Apocalypse. Visiting these sacred sites allows you to have a spiritual experience and gain a deeper understanding of the island's history. The evening concludes with another enchanting night spent on this magical island. Patmos Island offers you peace, spirituality, and the tranquility of nature as a spiritual break during your blue voyage.

Day 5 Patmos – Lipsi

Our blue voyage continues towards the tranquility of Lipsi Island, where we take a break on one of the small islands dotted around it. Lipsi is home to many beaches with crystal-blue waters like Platis Giolis. The town center includes a beautiful square with white houses, cafes, taverns, and restaurants. Here, you can taste the fresh flavours of the Aegean and interact with the locals. You can also explore the island's rich history by visiting historical sites like the Catopanaghia Church dating back to the 7th century and the Panopanaghia Church from the 15th century.

Day 6 Lipsi – Kalymnos

As we head towards Kalymnos Island and take a refreshing swimming break in a perfect bay. In the afternoon, we enter Pothia Port, the central harbor of the island. This charming harbor town has a tradition of sponge diving that has provided a livelihood for the islanders for many years. Kalymnos is famous for its beautiful beaches like Massouri, Mirties, and Vlyhadia. These beaches offer a perfect option for those who want to enjoy the calm sea and the sun. Additionally, you can embark on an impressive nature walk to explore the island's unique landscapes and natural beauty.

Day 7 Kalymnos – Akvaryum

We are about to step into the final destination of this unforgettable blue voyage. After completing the customs procedures, we set sail back to Bodrum, Turkey. The final swimming break of our journey will take place in Aquarium Bay, where you can swim accompanied by colourful fish will accompany you in these sparkling waters. We arrive into Bodrum port late afternoon, there won't be dinner onboard, so you can take the opportunity to explore the flavours of Bodrum.

Day 8 Bodrum

After breakfast, cabins to be vacated by 09:30. If necessary, luggage can be stored onboard whilst you continue to explore Bodrum whilst you wait for your transfer.
