BORNEO AND BEYOND: ORANGUTANS, DRAGONS & WHALE SHARKS

Welcome to your Indonesian expedition--where ancient volcanoes meet gentle giants of the sea, and every day brings encounters with wildlife and cultures shaped by fire and water. Over the next 12 days, you'll journey by traditional klotok boats to witness endangered orangutans at Camp Leakey, walk across Mount Bromo's otherworldly "sea of sand," and swim alongside magnificent whale sharks in Saleh Bay's pristine waters. This isn't passive observation of nature --you'll experience first-hand, traditional buffalo races staged in your honour and explore prehistoric landscapes where Komodo dragons roam free. Each morning brings new adventures shaped by Indonesia's extraordinary diversity. You'll navigate between 17,000 islands spanning dramatic geological contrasts, from Borneo's pristine rainforests to Java's active volcanic peaks. Walk among living dinosaurs on remote islands, and join village celebrations where ancient customs blend with Islamic and Hindu influences. From tracking proboscis monkeys through Tanjung Puting's Sekonyer River to snorkelling coral-tinted sands at Pink Beach, every experience connects you with environments few travellers witness. Our small expedition community of just 30 guests ensures intimate wildlife encounters and authentic cultural exchanges, as well as opportunities for snorkelling rich areas of marine wildlife. This is expedition travel where geological forces meet biological wonders: immediate, educational, and utterly extraordinary. Your Indonesian adventure begins the moment you board Paspaley Pearl.

Day 3 At Sea - Crossing to Borneo's Pristine Wilderness

Connect with expedition community during our crossing toward Borneo as naturalists prepare you for extraordinary wildlife encounters. Learn about orangutan conservation, proboscis monkey behaviour, and remarkable "bird lakes" while understanding Dr. Birute Galdikas' revolutionary primate research at the world-renowned Camp Leakey conservation centre.

Day 4 Camp Leakey & Tanjung Puting National Park - Orangutan Encounters

Journey by traditional klotok boats through pristine rivers to witness endangered orangutans during feeding times. islands, learning about Mount Bromo's active crater and the indigenous Tengger community's spiritual connections to volcanic environments.

Day 6 Probolinggo (Mount Bromo) - Walking on the Moon

Journey by 4WD across Mount Bromo's spectacular "sea of sand" to walk crater rims of this active volcano named after Brahma. Watch the changing light transform the 10-kilometre Tengger caldera while learning how indigenous communities maintain sacred traditions including casting offerings into active craters.
