DUBROVNIK TO SPLIT LUXURY CRUISE IN SEPTEMBER

After a tour of Dubrovnik we will cruise to Mljet National Park, a monastery on an island, on a lake, on an island. Mljet is a beautiful spot to walk, cycle, swim, kayak or take a small boat across the lake to visit the monastery. After an evening out at one of the lovely restaurants in Korčula (birthplace of Marco Polo) we head to the lovely island and port of Vis, hoping the weather is good enough to allow us to visit the Blue Cave. We finish with visits to Hvar, one of the trendiest towns in Croatia, historic Trogir and the buzzing and beautiful city of Split, a UNESCO World Heritage site. Interspersed with the stops in the beautiful ports and towns we moor overnight in, we will have a swim stop every day in a secluded bay, and the chance to eat ashore in the evenings at one of the many fine restaurants and cafes that line these historic ports. We only cruise for 4-5 hours a day, just time to enjoy a coffee and a few pages of a book if you can peel your eyes away from the scenery.
